Re: Notice of ex parte presentation - CC Docket No. 92-237

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Friday, August 6, 2004, J. Randolph MacPherson, of Halloran & Sage, LLP, procurement law counsel to Syniverse Technologies ("Syniverse"), and the undersigned, on behalf of Syniverse, met with staff from the Wireline Competition Bureau and the Office of the Managing Director regarding NeuStar's request in the above-referenced docket. The Wireline Competition Bureau was represented by Jane Jackson, Associate Chief; Vickie Robinson, Legal Counsel; Narda Jones, Acting Chief, Telecommunications Access Policy Division ("TAPD"); Cheryl Callahan, Assistant Chief, TAPD; Sanford Williams; and Pam Slipakoff. The Office of the Managing Director was represented by Dennis Dorsey and Mark Oakey.

In the meeting, Mr. MacPherson outlined the points of procurement law that are described in greater detail in Syniverse's August 3 and July 27 ex parte letters in this docket. Specifically, he described how loosening the ownership and transfer restrictions that were imposed on the North American Numbering Plan Administrator ("NANPA") at the time of the last procurement, as NeuStar, Inc., has proposed, would require, under the Federal Acquisition Regulation, the Commission to issue a new solicitation as part of the process of evaluating whether it may exercise the second option year under the current NANPA contract.
